

STUDIO GRAPHIQUE

Studio Graphique celebrates 10 years

Studio Graphique, to honor its 10th Anniversary, showcases 10 local artists in “Art of Space,” examining the awareness of space at 10 Cleveland locations. See it at Shaker Square until Sept. 19th, when the pieces will be auctioned to benefit art groups. Artemis Herber examines the topic boundaries in the Flats; Laurel Herbold looks at arrival at Shaker Square; Tricia La-

zuka mood at the lakefront; Thomas Roesse departure at Public Square; Hector Vega shapes at the Rock Hall; Suzie Frazier Mueller movement at the Erie Canal; Anne Kibbe traffic flow at University Circle; Melissa Daubert energy at the West Side Market; Sheila Markowitz illumination at the West Side Market; and Steven Sorin sound in the Metroparks. BXM

A detail from Markowitz's Lewis Building work in Studio Graphique's Art of Space exhibit